- Copies of your criminal record checks must be received before a student can be placed in your home.
- A homestay visit will be done before accepting your family as a registered homestay with the District.
- Permission from our program is required before you accept a homestay student from another program.
- There is a mandatory orientation session held each year for all host families.
- We do not guarantee placement of a student. Placements are made based on a best 'match' between host family and student.
